Medical.

Hoofland's German Bitters,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

Hoofland's German Bitters

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medically termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathising as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from all injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty two years since they were first introduced in to this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, etc.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes clear and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, as their case may require, a gentle but certain stimulant, that will infuse fresh vitality into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Penna., writes:
Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system Yours, truly,

GEO. W. WOODWARD"

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in cases of attacks of indigestion or Dyspepsia, I can certify that from my experience of it.

Yours, with respect,

JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere I have in all cases declined but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, in general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, of which I am personally acquainted, it is a most valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but rarely. I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates st.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL,
Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, for all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours, truly

E. D. FENDALL.

Sewing Machines.

THE HOWE MACHINE CO.'S

SEWING MACHINES,

699 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

These World-renowned Sewing Machines were awarded the Highest Premium at the World's Fair, in London, and six First Premiums at the N. Y. State Fair of 1866, and are celebrated for doing the best work, using the least needle for the same thread than any other machine, and by the introduction of the knot upper rod machinery, we are now able to supply the best machines in the world.

These machines are made at our new and spacious Factory at Bridgeport, Conn., under the immediate superintendence of the President of the Company, ELIAS HOWE, Jr., the original inventor of the Sewing Machine.

They are adapted to all kinds of Family Sewing, and to the use of Seamstresses, Dress Makers, Tailors, Manufacturers of Shirts, Collars, Skirts, Cloaks, Mantillas, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Corsets, Boots, Shoes, Harness, Saddles, Tents, Awnings, Umbrellas, Parasols, etc. They work equally well upon silk, linen, cotton or woolen goods, with silk, cotton or linen thread. They will seam, quilt, gather, hem, fell, cord, bind, braid and perform every species of sewing, making a beautiful and perfect stitch, alike on both sides of the article sewed.

The above machines, for which the highest premium was awarded to Mr. HOWE, and made on this Machine, is the most popular and durable, and all Sewing Machines are subject to the principle invented by Mr. Howe, in 1845.

SEWING MACHINES!

THE GROVER & BAKER.

THE BEST IN USE.—These Machines have become so well known that little need be said by way of recommendation. They have taken the first premium at all the State Fairs, and are universally acknowledged to be the BEST in use by all who have tried them. The "Grover & Baker Stitch" and the "Shuttle Stitch" are each that have been attained by no other Machine. They are the only Machines that ever went unbroken with operations. These Machines are peculiarly adapted to family use. They do not require a person to learn how to use them without recitation; and are simple in their construction. They are easy to manage, and are the best for all classes of work. Every family should have one. They fascinate, they sometimes, and they must money, and do their work better than it can be done by hand.

The undersigned having been appointed Agent for the above Machines, has established an Agency in Fairfield, Adams co., where he will always have on hand a supply. Persons wishing to buy will please call and examine for themselves.

☞Needles and Parts of all other machines supplied.

THE CHILD OF THE LIGHT-HOUSE.

The light-house keeper said to his child,
"I must go to the mainland, dear;
Can you stay alone till afternoon?
Quite early I hope to be here."
She tossed back her hair with a girlish grace,
As she lifted to his a brightening face,
"Yes, father. I've nothing to fear.

"With Kit and Fide I'll have fine play,
When I've seen your boat glide by;
Then I'll gather shells and seaweed bright,
And watch the cloud-fleets in the sky.
Oh! time will merrily glide away,
And when you come ere close of day,
To get a good supper I'll try."

"God keep thee, daughter," the father said,
As he drew her close to his side;
His sun-browned hand on her golden head,
While the light skiff waited its guide.
Then in he sprung, and with arrowy flight
The little boat sped, like a sea-bird bright,
O'er the sparkling, shimmering tide.

The child stood still on the wave-washed
Bantized in sun-light clear; [sand,
The father thought, as he waved his hand,
Of another yet more dear,
Who watched him erst from that gleaming strand,
Whose life-bark sped to the better land,
But leaving her image here.

Quietly, cheerily fled the hours
Of that long, bright summer day;
But lo! far westward a storm cloud lowers,
Its shadow is on the bay.
Oh, father I hope will not set sail,
In rash attempt to weather the gale!"
She thought as she knelt to pray.

"Then what if a ship should pass to night?"
In anxious tone she said;
"But can I?—yes, I must strike the light."
She climbed with cautious tread,
Up and still up the circling tower;
And full and clear till dawnlight hour,
The lantern's radiance spread.

"The mist is thick—the bell must be rung,"
The girlish arm was slight;
But the woman's heart to effort sprung,
And out thro' dreary night
The bell pealed forth again and again;
While an anxious crew on raging main
Were toiling with all their might.

The morning breaks and the storm is past;
The keeper sees sail for home;
His heart throbs deep as his boat flies fast,
Amid dashing spray and foam.
She touches land, and the chamber stairs
Echo his footfalls as hearts echo prayers;
He turns to his daughter's room.

No shame to his manhood that tears fall fast,
As he bends o'er the little bed;
And wild kisses bedew the tiny hands,
Thrown wearily over head.
For those hands have wrought a mightier deed
Than were blazoned in story or song;
And the ship, with its wealth of human life,
To-day safely rides o'er the billows strife,
Because the child's heart was strong!

THE NAME OF GOD IN FORTY-EIGHT LANGUAGES.

As Louis Burger, the well-known author and philologist, was walking in the Avenue des Champs Elysees the other day, he heard a familiar voice exclaiming, "Buy some nuts of a poor man, sir; twenty for a penny!" He looked up and recognized his old barber.

"What! are you selling nuts?" said he.

"Ah, sir, I have been unfortunate."

"But this is no business for a man like you!"

"Oh, sir, if you could only tell me of something better to do," returned the barber, with a sigh.

Burger was touched. He reflected a moment; then tearing a leaf from his memorandum book, he wrote for a few moments and handed it to the man, saying, "Take this to a printing office and have a hundred copies struck off; here is the money for it. Get a license from the prefecture of the police, and sell them at two cents a copy, and you will have bread on the spot. The strangers who visit Paris cannot refuse this tribute to the name of God, printed in so many different ways."

The barber did as he was bid, and was always seen at the entrance to the Exposition, selling the following hand bill:

A few days after, Burger met the barber.

"Well," said he, "has the holy name of God brought you good luck?"

"Yes, indeed, sir. I sell on an average a hundred copies a day, at two cents each, or two dollars; but the strangers are generous; some give me ten cents and others twenty. I have even received half a dollar a copy; so that, all told, I am making five dollars a day."

"Five dollars a day?"

"Yes, sir; thanks to your kindness."

Burger walked away, thinking: "If I were not a literary man I would turn peddler or publisher; there is nothing so profitable as selling the learning or wit of others."

"No person," says Henry Ward Beecher, "should be ashamed of his name."

"No person should ask for anything without being willing to take the responsibility of the request. The habit of standing up frankly to one's own actions, opinions or feelings, and taking the proper personal responsibility belonging to everything concerning his own personality, is manly and wholesome. If we were writing letters, like Lord Chesterfield, to a son, we should say, never write any letter that you are unwilling to sign. The habit of acting in all things frankly, openly, courageously, and of taking the consequences of one's thoughts and actions, cannot fail to result, in individuals and in communities, in a high and noble type of manhood. Therefore, never write anonymous letters."

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The Republican State Committee met in Harrisburg on Wednesday last, and designated the city of Philadelphia and the 11th of March next as the place and time for holding the Republican State Convention, for the nomination of candidates for Auditor General and Surveyor General. Four delegates at large to the National Convention are also to be selected by the Convention. The meeting of the State Committee was unusually large, nearly every county in the State being represented, and the best of feeling prevailed—the members expressing their confidence that Pennsylvania would be carried at the next election by an overwhelming majority by the Republicans.

LEGISLATIVE.

In the Senate, on Wednesday last, Mr. McCONAUGHY presented a petition from citizens of Adams county, for the establishment of such a military system in the Commonwealth as will promote a complete military organization, which may be available, if necessary.

On the same day the Senate passed finally an act extending to Hamilton township, Adams county, the provisions of the act of April 8, 1867, empowering the Court of Quarter Sessions of Adams county to appoint auditors to audit bounty accounts in the several boroughs and townships in said county, and in relation to re-auditing the bounty accounts of Cumberland township, in said county.

In the House, Mr. WINGER, of Franklin, read in place an act for the relief of citizens of the counties of Adams, Franklin, Fulton, Bedford, York and Cumberland, whose property was destroyed or damaged by the exigencies of the public service and in the common defence, in the war for the suppression of the Rebellion.

The Senate, by a strict party vote adopted a series of resolutions thanking the United States Senate for its endorsement of Secretary STANTON in his restoration to the War Department, from which the President undertook to remove him. The consideration of the resolutions led to a snarp and able discussion, in which Messrs. Lowry, Davis, McCandless, Wallace, McConaughy, Landon, and other Senators, participated. In the course of his remarks Mr. McCONAUGHY reviewed the position of the Democratic party, in antagonism to the country from the beginning of the rebellion to the present time, including their action at Chicago in 1864, pronouncing the war a failure and crying for a cessation of hostilities. The policy of Mr. STANTON had always been fully approved by the sainted LINCOLN; and when Senators assaulted STANTON, they assaulted the Nation's Martyr in his grave. The men that now thus hideously assaulted President LINCOLN were in sympathy with the assassin BOOTH. Even the anathemas which proceeded from the Vatican did not exceed these attacks upon loyal men. The glorious heart of the country might build its monument, stone upon stone, to the men who sustained the country; they could not prevent the snake and the frog from leaving their slime upon its base.

In the House, our member, Mr. HELTZEL, is on the Committees on Federal Relations, Agriculture, and Claims.

Bills have been introduced in both Senate and House to repeal the act incorporating the "Gettysburg Asylum."

GENERAL LEE shows his spite against MEADE by his published declaration that, in his opinion, HANCOCK is the only commanding General who has shown any sense in his management of the rebel States. One of the most recent indications of HANCOCK's sense is his determination not to wear his U. S. uniform in public, that he may not irritate the rebels! MEADE will never reach the point of being ashamed of his uniform, or of laying it aside to please anybody; and he will probably override LEE's criticism. Of course, LEE's Northern friends are echoing his judgment, as may be observed in any Copperhead paper.

MAYOR HOFFMAN of New York, in a reception speech he made in Philadelphia, had the effrontery to declare that the "Republicans were keeping ten states out of the Union."

MAYOR HOFFMAN ought to know that the only obstacles in the path of early restoration are those created by Southern Copperheads and such Northern sympathizers as himself. If he and his friends will keep "hands off," at least nine of the ten States will be restored before the 1st of May next.

OFFICIAL REPORTS from the South represent that there is an organized and fixed determination on the part of the planters to force the negroes to work at lower rates of wages, and, if possible, to secure his labor for the same amount of compensation given him when in slavery, and that for this purpose the refusal to contract and the threatened abandonment of all agricultural pursuits is made. If the Freedmen's Bureau were taken up, every sort of outrage would be perpetrated upon the blacks; it is this desire to have a "free course," that prompts the Copperhead denunciations of that useful organization.

THE Constitutional Convention in Mississippi desire to pass a Relief law like that of Alabama and Georgia, but Gen. GILLEN has given notice that he will not enforce it.

Who Gen. GILLEN is, nobody knows. What he is, is apparent. He is a tool of ANDY JOHNSON, to thwart Reconstruction in Arkansas and Mississippi. He was recently in Washington, and no doubt "got his cue" from headquarters. JOHNSON is doing his utmost to nullify the Reconstruction, but he acts behind a screen, puts forward pretty instruments, and thus seeks to escape responsibility.

OUR latest advices from Washington are to the effect that JOHNSON will issue no order or proclamation intended to interfere with Secretary STANTON'S discharge of official duty. He has been informed that instant impeachment would follow so palpable a violation of law.

RECONSTRUCTION.

The Supreme Court and the Radicals of the North.

The disunion Democracy are consistent in one respect. They are for acquiescing in the destruction of the Union attempted by JEFF. DAVIS, on the ground that the Government was not worth the cost of preserving it against so extensive a conspiracy. Now that the conspiracy is destroyed, they resist the restoration of the Union, because, under the mode of restoration proposed, their friends, who organized the Rebellion, will be deprived of controling power. Their consistency consists in their inflexible fidelity to Southern traitors.

They bullied and bribed JOHNSON in 1865 into adopting a plan for re-establishing the traitors; and when a faithful and courageous Congress repudiated the settlement, they appealed to the people who crushed them, for a time, with an overwhelming endorsement of the action of Congress. They remained dormant until an opportunity was offered for capturing the only remaining tribunal of appeal, the Supreme Court, which was speedily embraced. In April last, they asked the Court to issue an order prohibiting the PRESIDENT from enforcing the Reconstruction Acts. The Court unanimously refused, as beyond their power. During this recess they have diligently plied the various members of the Court, and now they ask them to declare the Reconstruction Acts unconstitutional and void. This question is now pending.

The case comes from Mississippi where one MCCARDLE was arrested, for disturbance of the public peace, defamation of the character of General ORD, libel, impeding reconstruction, &c. Judge HILL, of the U. S. District Court, on an application for habeas corpus, remanded him to the custody of the military authorities, but he was afterwards released on bail and is now at liberty.

A case is stated, which is said to involve the question of the power of Congress to enact the Reconstruction legislation.—Judge BLACK moved to have the case put forward on the Calendar, under a rule giving preference to criminal cases and "cases which involve or effect some matter of general public interest." This motion has been granted by a majority of the Court, and the case is to be argued early in March.

The five Judges who voted to advance the case are CLIFFORD, of Maine, DAVIS, of Illinois, FIELD, of California, GRIER, of Pennsylvania, and NELSON, of New York; the three who voted against it, were CHASE, of Ohio; MILLER, of Iowa, and SWAYNE, of Ohio. Some persons think this vote does not indicate the final action of the Court; and others think that as the Court is to adjourn soon after the hearing it may not undertake to give a decision till next year.

Be that as it may, the case is one which deserves public attention—

First, Because it shows how Judges, even the highest, are necessarily politicians, and why their opinions on political questions are entitled to no weight whatever because of their being Judges.

And second, Because this is an attempt to override, as a great political question, the will of Congress and of the people, by the vote of five old men, which, if allowed, would wholly change the CHARACTER OF OUR GOVERNMENT.

Of the five, CLIFFORD, GRIER and NELSON are the spawn of the corrupt, pro-slavery Administrations of POLK and PIERCE. Nothing better is expected of them. Two of them groveled during the war, because it is their nature and they couldn't help it. One, GRIER, had some manly pulsations, but he is very feeble and has yielded to the influences which are about him. DAVIS is a Marylander by birth, and has not outgrown the prejudices of his youth. He has been compromised by his opinion of last year in the Milligan case; and has been fastened to the Democracy by being flattered with the idea that they may nominate him for the Presidency! FIELD of California, is the most detestible man on the Bench. He is the youngest member, and was imposed upon Mr. LINCOLN. He wrote letters beseeching the appointment, professed the most intense Republicanism, and said the highest ambition of his life was to join in the overthrow of the Dred Scott decision. A new circuit for the Pacific Coast was created, and he was appointed. Last year, he drew the opinions in the Test Oath cases, and joined with the majority in the Milligan case; and this year has occupied the extreme Copperhead ground. He is an active politician. When a political testimonial is to be presented to JOHNSON, Judge FIELD joins in the cavalcade. When a political decision is to be pronounced, he consults with the Copperhead politicians; and, we understand, the morning the action on the McCardle case was announced DOOLITTLE followed FIELD, in consultation; to the very door of the Supreme Court room. When a political discussion takes place in a street car or a public table, Judge FIELD, if present, joins in it—thus illustrating his fine Judicial character! Recently he met in a car a gentleman who had been instrumental in his appointment. FIELD began his usual denunciation of the principles of the Republican party, styling it your party, your principles, &c. The gentleman endured it as long as he could, and then said: "Judge FIELD, when you desired to be appointed, you spoke very pretentiously of our principles, and our party—I prefer to hear no more from you on the subject." The JUDGE wilted under the rebuke and soon left the car.

Judge FIELD is the worst man on the Bench. He is bitter, unscrupulous, and of necessity unable to discharge judicial functions. Congress ought to repeal the law creating the circuit which he represents, and retire him to private life.

Where the political power (Congress) has recognized an existing State government, "its decision is binding on every other department of the Government, and could not be questioned in a judicial tribunal." This is the precise language of the Court in the celebrated Rhode Island case in 1842, delivered by Judge TANEY.

Congress has declared that the existing governments in the Rebel States are "not legal State governments." And the Supreme Court cannot rightfully go behind that.

Should they attempt to do so, JOHNSON would doubtless seize the opportunity to show more of his malignant obstinacy, and probably do much mischief.—But we have an abiding hope that the Supreme Court will not challenge the indignation of the people by stepping outside of its line of duty to take part in the heated political controversies of the day.

IN Newark, N. J., the Copperheads have organized a "secret" political order, called the "Jackson Association." Not opposed to secret political societies, now, when the election is to be carried! Constitutional Democrats.

THE sympathizers are aghast at Republican efforts to thwart the Copperhead effort to drag the Supreme Court into the reconstruction controversy. One who did not know the history of these gentlemen would naturally suppose that they would scorn all such means; yet ever so distinguished a Democrat as ALEX. H. STEPHENS of Georgia declared publicly in 1861 that the South in old times, although it furnished but one-fourth of the business of the Court, so organized the Court that a majority of the Judges came from the South, "in order that the decisions upon Constitutional questions might be in their favor."

The Republicans do not make this bald demand but only ask that a simple majority of a Court shall not set aside a law which it may have required a two-third vote in each branch of Congress to enact. What can be fairer?

THE Republican State Conventions of Connecticut, New Hampshire, Maine, Arkansas, and Tennessee, recently held, have all declared for GRANT for President. There is no doubt of his nomination by the National Convention, though the Massachusetts Anti-slavery Society have published their "want of confidence" in him. They agree in this with JOHNSON who intensely hates GRANT, and whose hounds are howling after him in full cry.

MR. ANDREW JOHNSON is reported in a recent private conversation for the enlightenment of mankind to have said:

"The President is elected directly by the people, and is therefore as directly their representative as Congress is."

The President is not elected "directly by the people," but by colleges of electors. And Mr. JOHNSON was not elected President by anybody, unless it was by WILKES BOOTH.

AT a recent supper at the Union Hotel, Georgetown, D. C., given by the newly elected officers of the corporation, RICHARD L. CROPLEY, a flour merchant, proposed this toast:

"The President of the United States, and to the man that pulled the trigger that killed the man that freed the nigger."

The brutal sentiment was not rebuked, but was received in silence by the company.

COPPERHEAD papers were much exercised over a murderous riot which occurred in Pulaski, Tennessee, on the 7th of this month. An official investigation was made by Gen. CARLIN who reports that, in his opinion, the riot was "the work of a secret organization of ex-rebel soldiers who are banded together for the purpose of driving loyal men out of the counties of Giles and Maury, and establishing a reign of terror over the negroes."

THE Alabama Rebels are to have a day of fasting and prayer to be spared what they style the "horrors of negro domination."

We hope before they begin to pray, they will wipe from their tongues the lie that they are in any danger of "negro domination."

DOOLITTLE on the 8th of January, denounced "Southern Radicals"—meaning the secession element. He has so recently got into the Copperhead party that he does not appear to know they are the "right wing" of the Copperhead army, without which they can't keep up an organization, much less win a Victory.

IN Arkansas, the era of assassination has been revived, and registering officers are being murdered by the rebels, as the same class were in 1862 in Pennsylvania by the Copperheads. When the Republicans get loyal governments erected in the Southern States, there will be short work with these murderers.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE President still persists in refusing to recognize Mr. Stanton as Secretary of War, and resorts to all sorts of expedients to get information from the War Department.

A MEETING of the Lincoln Monument Association was held at Springfield, Ill., on Thursday, and it was resolved to erect a monument costing two hundred thousand dollars.

IN a late interview, Gen. Sherman bluntly told the President that the officers of the army and navy would never consent to allow the rebels to put their feet upon necks of loyal men.

JAMES Buchanan will be seventy-seven years old on the 12th of April, 1868. It must be a sad reflection to the old gentleman that Heaven permits man to outlive a good reputation.—Cincinnati Commercial.

GENERAL Hancock, out of regard for the feeling of the rebels in New Orleans, has decided not to wear his uniform in that city, and for this decision he is commended by the Washington organ of the President as acting wisely, in not irritating the feelings of the rebel Louisianians. Having changed his principles to suit the rebels, why not also change his coat?

IN the Eighth District of Ohio yesterday the Republicans elected General John Beatty as their Representative in Congress in the place of the late Mr. Hamilton. Mr. Beatty's majority is over 1,000. In 1866, when Mr. Hamilton was elected, the District gave 1,852 Republican majority. In 1867, on the Governor's vote (the last election), it gave 246 Republican majority. The result yesterday does not look much like a falling off of the Republican vote in Ohio.

THE Princeton (Ky.) Progress, one of the leading Democratic papers of that State, pleasantly and courteously speaks of Gen. Burbridge of the Union army, as "Burbridge the tyrant, Burbridge the murderer and robber, Burbridge the thief, Burbridge the vandal, Burbridge the vampire, and his brother, Burbridge the assassin." The chief offence of General Burbridge, as far as has yet been made known, was the execution of General Sherman's orders during the rebellion.

THE Kansas papers state that several cases of poisoning have occurred in that State from parties eating buckwheat flour in which the seeds of the "jimpson" weed had been mixed and ground. The symptoms are intense thirst, followed by crying and laughing fits, in which the pupil of the eye becomes greatly dilated, and finally delirium sets in. No one has yet died with it, but several persons have been affected, and in one case a whole family of four was thus poisoned.

IT reads queerly now that Gen. McClellan once ordered the arrest of Grant; that Halleck scolded him; that Smith had him superceded; and that he was snubbed in other ways. That was during the time of martinets and red tape, when but for such original and independent and thoroughly patriotic men as Grant, the nation would have patted rebellion with kid gloves, and conquered treason with dress parades and harmless manœuvers according to the schools.—New York Sun.

GENIUS, PLUCK, MONEY, AND THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.

The Genius to plan, the Pluck to undertake, and the Money to do with, are the three grand essentials in all great and successful enterprises. Each is good in its way, but each is powerless without the other. It is but rarely that all these qualifications are combined, either in an individual or a company; but when they are, difficulties vanish and magnificent results are obtained. Old Colonel Tom Benton was thought a man of genius, yet he never planned a Railroad across the Rocky Mountains, except "where practicable;" but the old hard-money Senator is dead, and the world and its people and its ideas have moved on. The Rocky Mountains don't look as high as they did, and, like many other difficulties which seemed insurmountable in the distance, they have been got over without unusual effort. The locomotive will run up to their highest summit at a grade of only eighty feet to the mile, and down again on the other side upon a slope of but ninety feet, while the Baltimore & Ohio winds its climbing way over the Alleghanies at an incline of one hundred and sixteen feet to the mile, for twenty miles together.

A few men saw that a Pacific Railroad must be built. There was no other way to the Pacific, without traversing two oceans at great cost of time and money. The defiles of the Alps were not higher than Evans Pass, and, as they were being tunneled and traversed, why not the Rocky Mountains? So Genius sent out its topographical and engineering corps, and, after two or three years of surveying and mapping, it was reported that a practicable line for the great inter-oceanic highway had been found. Genius further saw, that when finished, for magnitude and amount of traffic it would be one of the wonders of the world. But Arithmetic said, "Nothing less than a hundred millions of money will create it." Pluck, nothing daunted at these figures, replied, "Let us bring in all the great parties in interest and do our best with them." The United States government wanted it the "worst way." Uncle Sam had an immense farm of millions of square mile lying waste, of which nobody would buy an acre until he made a railroad through it; and then, nothing else would civilize those troublesome Indian tenants. Besides, the old gentleman was pretty deeply in debt, and his enterprising family were willing to help him out, if he would only open a way to his great gold mines; and so he came down with an offer to lend fifty million dollars in bonds, and to make a liberal donation of land, if Pluck would go to work and "put the road right through."

Pluck accordingly went to work with a will, and Congress chartered the Union Pacific Railroad Company. Most of the "solid" men laughed at him; others would venture but a trifle, while a few brave spirits pledged their fortunes to the result. Two brothers invested a million dollars, and several other individuals half a million each, and the road was begun. But Money, or Capital, was still timid, and Congress wisely gave nothing except as each section of the road was finished. The truth was, that if the child lived, thrived and grew strong, Old Capital was very willing to pat him on the back, and to lend a helping hand; but he was to be kept out in the cold, to see if he had inherent strength enough to stand it. Then, if he did not freeze to death, he was to be taken in and adopted into the great Wall-Street family. He did live; and, under the name of UNION PACIFIC, he became a giant, and has built and is running a longer line of railroad than any other body or company besides in the country. Old Capital now runs after him, and begs that he will borrow his money at the lowest rate, and the public buy Union Pacific First Mortgage Bonds faster than the Company can continue to issue them, at the present price. It is this united and irresistible power of GENIUS, PLUCK, AND MONEY that drives the work so bravely on, and promises the consummation of our material national union, so long and devoutly wished for, in 1870. If all the world's great undertakings could secure such a combination, we should hear little of delay and less of failure.

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

BEDFORD.—John H. Filler has been appointed Second Lieutenant in the 29th Infantry, U. S. A., and has, we hope, recovered from the severe wound inflicted in the campaign of 1866.

CARROLL.—On the 14th instant Wm. Meredith, residing near Uniontown, died very suddenly. Mr. Meredith a few days previous was thrown from his horse, from which cause he was confined to the house. On the evening of Tuesday last while seated at the stove he complained of pain in his side, and while being led to the bed was found to be dying. Before medical aid could be called he ceased to breathe. On the morning of the 16th, while the relatives and friends of the deceased were preparing to follow his remains to the place of interment, his sister, Mary Grace Meredith, while crossing the room to put on her wrappings, fell to the floor, and before she could be carried to a bed in the adjoining room, had expired. Both of the deceased parties were unmarried, and had for years resided together. In death they were parted only for the space of about forty-eight hours.—On Wednesday morning last Miss Susan Rinehart, a young lady residing at Wm. Rinehart's about two miles from Westminster on the Uniontown turnpike, while kindling a fire, had her dress take fire, and in a few moments her clothing was ablaze. Mr. Rinehart and his wife, after considerable effort, succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not until the young lady was very badly burned.

CUMBERLAND.—Geo. W. Himes, aged 72 years, a highly respected citizen of Shippensburg, died suddenly of paralysis on the 19th.—John B. Noble, of Carlisle, was convicted last week of selling diseased meat, and sentence to 20 days imprisonment and to pay a fine of $30.

FRANKLIN.—Col. A. K. McClure, of Chambersburg, reached Chicago on Wednesday, enroute from Montana territory.—John Berryhill, aged 85 years, died suddenly, at the residence of his son-in-law D. O. Gehr, in Chambersburg, on the 18th inst. About 15 minutes before his death he sent a servant girl on an errand, and when she returned to the room she found him dead in a sitting position leaning upon his hands.

YORK.—A young German, employed at Krantz's Brewery, in Hanover, was robbed of $130 a short time since. The money was keep in a trunk and was not missed until Sunday last. Suspicion attaches to a German employed at the Brewery, who left suddenly a few weeks ago.—Among the subscribers to the new loan to pay off the over due bonds of the State debt, we notice the following Hanoverians, viz:—Wm. Young. $25,000; Jacob Forney £2,000; Henry Wirt 8,250; Andrew Soladay $,000; Henry Eichelberger 3,000.—Donovan, convicted of the murder of the Squibb family, has been sentenced to be hung by Judge Fisher.

THE Cincinnati Commercial thinks that the bill to disfranchise students in the Ohio academies and colleges, which the Democrats in the Legislature want to pass, and possibly will, must have its orgin in a conviction on their part that a collegiate education disqualifies a man for voting the Democratic ticket.

PREMIUMS FOR NEW SUBSCRIBERS.—Our friends will bear in mind that any one of our present subscribers sending in the names of four new subscribers, with the cash in advance ($2 per annum), will receive a credit of one year's subscription on their own account—in other words, for each new subscriber sent in, accompanied by the cash, a PREMIUM OF FIFTY CENTS is allowed as a credit on present subscriptions. Some of our subscribers have thus paid their own paper for two and three years in advance. The same opportunity is offered to all. Who will signalize the new year by doing likewise?

☞Our thanks are due to Mr. HEITZEL, of the House, Senator McCONAUGHY, Hon. WM. H. KOONTZ, and Hon. SIMON CAMERON for sundry documents.

☞On the 20th inst., pending the consideration of the Amendatory Re-construction Act in the House, our Representative, Hon. WM. H. KOONTZ, made a brief, but able and cogent speech in its favor, which appears in full in the Congressional Globe. We shall endeavor to make room for it in our columns.

BANK STOCK SOLD.—On the 21st ult., five shares of Gettysburg National Bank stock, belonging to the estate of HENRY SPALDING, deceased, were sold at public sale and brought $61 25 per share, E. B. BUEHLER, Esq., purchaser.

A LARGE LOAD.—Our friend HEZEKIAH LATSHAW, of New Salem, on Monday last hauled to town probably the largest load of wood ever delivered here. It was taken to the Railroad, unloaded and ranked, measuring 4½ cords. It was hauled with six horses.

ADVERTISING SALES.—The approaching Spring Sales will for a few weeks necessarily run up the space occupied by our advertising columns. The "STAR AND SENTINEL" having a much larger circulation than any paper in the county, makes it an indispensable advertising medium to all having property to sell—being read by the business men of the county generally.

LECTURES.—The series of Lectures, under the auspices of the Literary Societies of Pa., College, have opened finely. That by DAVID PAUL BROWN, Esq., on the 21st ult., was an able and eloquent effort, as was also that of Rev. T. DE WITT TALMAGE, last evening. Both Lectures were listened to by large and appreciative audiences. The young men who have gotten up these intellectual treats deserve much credit, and we hope our citizens will evince their appreciation of them by giving them full houses.

SETTLED.—We notice by the Macon City (Ill.) News, that our young friends J. F. CULP and JAMES LASHELL, who left this place some months ago, have settled in that growing city, and have hung out. "their shingle" as House and Sign Painters, Paper Hangers, &c., under the firm now of CULP & LASHELL. They are both first-rate workmen, thoroughly "at home" in the business they design following, and have the best wishes of numerous friends here for a successful business career.

SALES.—The following sales of Personal Property, to take place this spring, will be found in our advertising column:

COURT DOINGS.—But two cases were disposed of in Common Pleas last week, viz:

Peter Diehl vs. The Adams County Fire Insurance Company—Action to recover amount of Policy of Insurance on Tannery. The insurance had been granted on a Tannery without steam. Subsequently Mr. Diehl leased the Tannery to his sons, who put up an engine and operated the Tannery by steam. A few months thereafter a portion of the buildings burnt down. The Company declined to pay because of the conversion into a Steam Tannery without its consent. On trial, Plaintiff offered to prove that he had given notice to the Company of the intended change—that one of the Managers had examined the premises—that an assessment had been made on the Premium Note, &c., which offer was overruled by the Court, on the ground that the Policy itself, which was the evidence of contract between the parties, expressly provided that the change should suspend the policy, unless such change were made by consent of the Company and endorsed on the Policy. Notice of change was not sufficient. Nor was it in the power of an Agent or Manager to change the contract. The Jury under instruction of the Court, rendered a verdict for Defendants.

Jonathan B. Myers vs. Gibson Myers—Summons in Partition. Plaintiff claimed the undivided half of a tract of 66 acres of land, with improvements, in Reading township. Defendant resisted on ground that Plaintiff had not paid one-half of the purchase money. Verdict for Plaintiff, that he have equal partition of the lands.

QUARTER SESSIONS.

Com. vs. Isaac Kane.—Indicted for stealing a Horse, property of Jacob R. Whitmore. Defendant had been indicted with John Ulrich, who, however plead guilty at April Term, 1866, and was sentenced to Penitentiary for two years. Kane was subsequently tried and found guilty, but new trial was granted. Last week he was re-tried, found guilty, and sentenced to Penitentiary one year and eight months.

Com. vs. Abraham Trostle—Assault and Battery, on information of Samuel Shelly, tax collector for Huntington township. Defendant refusing to pay his taxes, Shelly threatened to make a levy, whereupon the assault was committed which led to this suit. Found guilty, but sentence postponed.

Com. vs. Christian Hoffman—Assault and battery, on information of Lewis Krumrine. Verdict guilty, and sentenced to pay fine of $5 and costs.

Com. vs. Samuel Stanton—Surety of the Peace, on information of David Robinson. On hearing of parties, complaint dismissed.

All the applications for license were granted.

The Grand Jury approved the view for a bridge over Willoughby's run, on the road leading from Gettysburg to Fairfield.

"THE GETTYSBURG ASYLUM."—We have received a copy of the Report of the Congressional Committee to whom had been referred the report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue giving his reasons for exempting the scheme known as the "Gettysburg Asylum for Invalid Soldiers," from special tax. The report is from the pen of Mr. VAN WYCK, and goes into a detailed examination of the origin and progress of the swindle, as given by witnesses examined before the Committee, including some of the originators of the scheme. The Report is too lengthy for our columns, but we give the substantial facts. It seems that a prominent and wealthy tobacconist of New York, John Anderson, during the war, invested largely in diamonds. A portion of them were tainted with fraud, and Mr. Anderson instituted criminal proceedings against the parties who had swindled him. After the war these diamonds, purchased with gold at 200 and 280, rapidly depreciated, and Anderson and his friends cast about for some expedient to make themselves "whole." Calling in R. France, P. A. Edgerton and S. T. Dickinson, well known professional lottery gamblers, it was determined to get up a lottery scheme, with the ostensible object of benefitting disabled soldiers. To make the scheme more plausible an Agent was sent on to Gettysburg to purchase a portion of the battle-field as the site of the contemplated Asylum. The next thing was to get an Act of Incorporation. Ex-Recorder Smith, an eminent lawyer of New York, who had long been counsel for these lottery gamblers, was consulted, who in due course of time advised them that it would be impossible to get an Incorporation from the Legislature of New York, by reason of the prohibiting clauses in the constitution. He was then requested to examine to the constitutions of other States, to see where the way might be clear for them. In due time Judge Smith reported that the State of Pennsylvania had no such prohibition. These charitable patriots at once directed their steps to Harrisburg, where masking their real purposes and moving in the shadow of the names of Generals Meade and Pennypacker as incorporators, with a promise of $300,000 for the establishment of an Asylum at Gettysburg, they procured the charter, which is now the subject of litigation in the Supreme Court. Mr. Anderson at once paid $10,000 into the State Treasury, and a meeting of the Trustees was called, which was attended by but one of the corporators named in the bill—Generals Meade and Pennypacker knowing nothing of it. The charter thus secured, the mask is thrown off, and the master spirits step up on the boards, Messrs. France, Edgerton and Dickinson undertaking to run the machine.

The charter provided that before each disposition of property $10,000 should be paid into the State Treasury. This contemplated 30 different dispositions before the $300,000 could be realized. As the first disposition contemplates the sale of tickets to the amount of $1,-200,000, it is easy to see that by the time the "Gettysburg Asylum" would realize its $300,000, somebody else would realize in the neighborhood of $30,000,000! For every $10,000 paid over to the Asylum, these patriotic corporators would pocket over half a million! Mr. Van Wyck, in further exposition of the scheme, shows that Anderson's diamonds, for which he claims to have paid $150,000, (and a swindle at that,) are put in the scheme at $300,000, while a farm in Mr. Van Wyck's own district, assessed at $3,500, is advertised as worth $60,000! So with other prizes.

As soon as General Meade's attention was drawn to the scheme, with which his name had thus been associated, he addressed Mr. Brewster, the Attorney General, who at once took steps to arrest the swindle. Anderson, alarmed lest his diamonds, then on exhibition in Philadelphia, should be seized by the police, removed them to New York, where the parties opened shop under cover of the charter granted by the Legislature of Pennsylvania—France & Co. retiring from the active management, and a Mr. Hitchcock, who had been previously successful in gift enterprises, taking charge of it. Mr. Hitchcock testifies that thus far the scheme has been a failure, by reason of the public denunciation and mistrust—that the expenses have been about $80,000 more than the receipts, only $20,000 having been received.

Postmaster General Randall, who had given the enterprise his endorsement, recommending it as a "truly patriotic and benevolent enterprise," has withdrawn his recommendation, as appears by the December number of the U. S. Mail, which says:

"We are authorized by the Postmaster General to say, that at the time he was induced to sign this recommendation he believed the enterprise was a praiseworthy one, and intended to aid a noble charity; but that he has become convinced that the scheme has been perverted to fraudulent purposes, and he desires to withdraw the recommendation he then made."

The Committee are pretty severe on John H. Diehl, Collector of the 2d District, Philadelphia, on whose certificate Commissioner Rollins granted the exemption from taxes, and close by recommending the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Commissioner of Internal Revenue be requested to revoke the permit heretofore given exempting the scheme known as the Gettysburg Asylum for Disabled Soldiers from payment of special tax and license, said revocation to take effect from May 28, 1867, and that taxes and license be collected from said association the same as if no permit had ever been given.

SLEIGH-RIDE.—Our good-natured friend, NICHOLAS WEAVER, who is in the habit of doing clever things, on one of the bright, sunshiny days of the past week, sent word to the officers and children of the National Orphans' Homestead, that it was his purpose to treat them to a sleigh-ride. In due time some four or five huge sleighs, capacious enough to receive all connected with the establishment, old and young, appeared at the Homestead, marshalled by Mr. WEAVER himself—the horses gaily decked with flags and everything calculated to delight the little ones. As the large cavalcade passed through our streets, with the merry jingle of the bells and the joyous notes of the children, singing as they went, it attracted much attention. We believe this is the third ride Mr. WEAVER has given these orphan children of the Nation's heroes, and we are requested, on behalf of the officers of the Institution and the children, to return to him their most cordial thanks.

PROPERTY SALES.—Codori and Doersom have sold to Col. C. H. Buehler, a lot of about 2½ acres, on North Stratton street, at $650 cash. They have also sold a building lot, on the same street, to Carl Miller, at $150. Mr. Miller has already commenced the erection of a dwelling thereon.

Edward Sheffer has sold his property, in Reading township, to Peter Kaufman—14½ acres, with improvements, at $3,000,

Jacob Kime has purchased from Capt. Henry Witmor, 11½ acres of land, in Straban township, at $47 per acre, cash.

Daniel Miller has disposed of the Graffenberg Springs property, in this county, to Samuel Seachrist, of Quincy, Franklin county, for $7,000.

Nicholas Deatrich, of Huntington township, has sold his farm in Tyrone township, to J. S. Deatrich for $4,750.

HEALTH GIVING WINE.—Some time since Mr. A. Speer of Passaic, N. J., presented us with a bottle of his Port Grape Wine. In our turn, we presented it to a friend who was in feeble health. After giving the wine a few trials, our friend assures us he derived marked benefit from its use. We find that many invalids in this city are using Speer's Port Grape Wine with the same beneficial results.

Druggists keep it. 1t

"OH! THAT WILL BE JOYFUL!"—When men and woman throw "Physic to the dogs," and when a trifle out of order, say to prevent getting out of order, take Plantation Bitters. Are you Dyspeptic, Nervous, Jaundiced' Hy'pped, Low Spirited, Weak, or are you sick and don't know what ails you? We have been, and was recommended to try the Plantation Bitters, which we did with great satisfaction and entire success. Delicate Females, Clergymen, Merchants, Lawyers, and persons of Sedentary Habits, are particularly benefited by these Bitters. The sale is perfectly enormous.

MAGNOLIA WATER is a delightful toilet article—superior to Cologne and at half the price. Jan. 29–2t

A VALUABLE BOOK.—We have on several occasions spoken favorably of RICHARDSON'S new work, "Beyond the Mississippi." Mr. R. is a reliable and graphic writer, and in this work gives us the result of his observation and experience in an extended tour through the remarkable country lying between the Mississippi and the Pacific. It is profusely illustrated, and is in every respect one of the most interesting publications of the day. It should be in every family. We understand that Mr. GEORGE YOUNG has taken the agency for this county and will canvass for subscriptions, so that those desiring the work will have an opportunity to procure it at the publisher's price.

Watches for the Million!

ARRANDALE & CO'S GREAT WATCH CLUB.

EVERYBODY needs a good watch, and wishes to get it at the lowest possible price; a horde of swindlers knowing this have contrived various ingenious devices to get people's money, and then either fail to send a watch, or send one that is worthless as a tin-keeper. ARRANDALE & CO. have now perfected arrangements by which, for the smallest sum of $10, a good and reliable watch may be CERTAINLY obtained. They have formed a GREAT WATCH CLUB on the following plan. Certificates containing the numbers of all the watches named in our wholesale list (which is sent to all applicants) are mixed up, enclosed in envelopes, and sold for 25 cents each.—Every certificate is warranted to be a watch, and as will be seen on reference to the list, none are of less value than Ten Dollars, whilst some are worth $300.—We undertake to send any watch drawn whatever may be its value for $10, and in order that every one may absolutely depend upon getting a first-class time-keeper, we guarantee that every purchaser of One Dollar's worth of certificates shall receive at least one for watch No. 533 on our wholesale list, sent free, which is a first-class patent lever, a handsome and reliable watch, in sterling silver hunting case, and usually sold for $40. You will certainly get such a watch; and besides, you may get a Gold Chronometer Watch! We sell the certificates as follows: One for 25 cents; Three for 65 cents; Six for $1; and Twenty for $3. To those sending $1, we will send a handsome Gilt Watch. To those sending $2, we will send a gold chain warranted not to tarnish in 20 years.—Parties getting up larger clubs will receive liberal presents, particulars of which may be learned on application. As it is our intention to do a strictly honorable business, and to insure our customers from liability to lose, we will send our watches, if desired, without money, instructing the Express agent to collect only on delivery. If we are desired to forward with money by mail, the money must be sent us by Bank Draft or Post Office Order, and it will then be at our risk. We will then register the package at our post office, and if lost it will be replaced free of charge. If any watch sent is not approved, it may be returned and the money will be refunded. The reputation of our firm, which has been established for five years, and is well known in every part of the country, we trust will be deemed a sufficient guarantee that we will faithfully perform all we contract to do. Miscellaneous.

A LIBRARY OF UNIVERSAL INFORMATION.

THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA:
A POPULAR DICTIONARY OF GENERAL KNOWLEDGE.
EDITED BY
GEORGE RIPLEY AND CHARLES A. DANA,

AIDED BY A NUMEROUS SELECT CORPS OF WRITERS, IN ALL BRANCHES OF SCIENCE, ART, AND LITERATURE.

In 16 large volumes, 8vo,
750 double-column pages in each volume.

The leading claims to public consideration which the New American Cyclopædia possesses may be thus briefly stated:

"1. It surpasses all other works in the fulness and ability of the articles relating to the United States.

"2. No other work contains so many reliable biographies of the leading men of this and other countries. In this respect it is far superior even to the more bulky Encyclopædia Britannica.

"3. The best minds in this country have been employed in enriching its pages with the latest data, and the most recent discoveries in every branch of manufactures, mechanics, and general science.

"4. It is a library in itself, where every topic is treated and where information can be gleaned which will enable a student, life is so disposed, to consult other authorities, thus affording him an invaluable key to knowledge.

"5. It is neatly printed, with readable type, on good paper, and contains a most copious index.

"6. It is the only work which gives any thing approaching correct descriptions of cities and towns in America, or embraces reliable statistics showing the wonderful growth of all sections."

Every one that reads, every one that mingles in society, is constantly meeting with allusions to subjects on which he needs and desires further information. In conversation, in trade, in professional life, on the farm, in the family, practical questions are continually arising, which no man, well read or not, can always satisfactorily answer. If facilities for reference are at hand, they are consulted, and not only is the curiosity gratified, and the stock of knowledge increased, but perhaps information is gained and ideas are suggested that will directly contribute to the business success of the party concerned.

A Cyclopædia is preeminently the work for our country and generation. This is the age of steam. No one has time to grope among a hundred different works for every little fact required, without the certainty of finding it at last. With a Cyclopædia embracing every conceivable subject, and hating its topics alphabetically arranged, one's mind is at rest. The matter in question is found at once, digested, condensed stripped of all that is irrelevant and unnecessary, and written by a competent one of the best authorities. Moreover, while only men of fortune can collect a library complete in all the departments of knowledge, a Cyclopædia, worth in itself for purposes of reference at least a hundred volumes, is within the reach of all—the cloth, the merchant, the professional man, the farmer, the mechanic. As a country like ours, rapidly developing, is constantly to responsible positions requiring intelligence and general information, the value of such a work cannot be over estimated.

Patent Gum Scrubber.

THE advantages of the Scrubber over all others are, first, that it will do the work in one half the time usually employed; 2nd, that it requires much less water and does the work much better; 3rd, that it will clean and dry the floor at the same time and save all the labor of wiping up with a cloth; 4th, that it will last a great many years, by occasionally renewing the Gums, which can be done very easily and at very trifling expense.
